PURPOSE

The purpose of the Pre-enrolment Engagement Policy and Procedure is to provide guidance to staff and prospective students on the requirements, processes, communication, and documentation that must be undertaken and/or completed prior to a student being admitted and enrolled into a ANC Scope of Registration.

These requirements involve the determining the suitability and relevance of a program based on a Student current competencies, existing educational attainment, capabilities, aspirations, and interests.

- ANC have training and assessment strategies and practices that are consistent with the requirements of training packages and VET accredited courses and enable each learner to meet the requirements for each unit of competency or module in which they are enrolled.
- ANC determine the amount of training we provide our students with regard to the existing skills, knowledge and experience of the learner; mode of delivery and where a full qualification is not being delivered, the number of units and/or modules being delivered as a proportion of the full qualification.

ANC ensure that learners are adequately informed about the services they are to receive, their rights and obligations, and the ANCs responsibilities to students, ANC will provide learners with information prior to commencement of services affecting the delivery of training and/or assessment.

The ANC is to provide or make readily available information to the learner that outlines the services the ANC will provide the learner, along with the rights and obligations of the learner and the ANC.

SCOPE:

This policy applies to:

- Current Student and Prospective students of ANC
- ANC Marketing, Admissions, Academic, Student Services and Administrative staff.

All staff are made aware of the requirements of this policy through regular meetings, staff updates, Staff Induction, Policy Procedure network drive and continuous improvement practices. Students are made aware of this policy through the Student Handbook, during the enrolment and orientation processes and also throughout the course.

POLICY STATEMENT:-

- ANC recruits students in an ethical and responsible manner and provide information that enables students to make informed decisions about studying with the ANC in Australia. ANC ensures students' qualifications, experience and English language proficiency are appropriate for the course for which enrolment is sought.

Please refer to Assessing Student's Qualifications, Experience and English Language Proficiency Policy and Procedure.

- Written agreements stated in ANC Letter of Offer and Acceptance Agreement-International Student between ANC and students set out the services to be provided, fees payable and information in relation to refunds of tuition fees.
- ANC is to have a written agreement with each student. ANC does not accept tuition fees from students before a Letter of Offer and Acceptance Agreement- been signed or otherwise accepted by that student (Note:- ANC does not enroll student under the age of 18 year old).
- ANC enters into a written agreement with the student, signed or otherwise accepted by that student, concurrently with or prior to accepting tuition fee from the student. The agreement must:
 - a) Identify the course or courses in which the student is to be enrolled and any conditions on his or her enrolment
 - b) Provide an itemised list of tuition fees payable by the student
 - c) Provide information in relation to refunds of tuition fees
 - d) Set out the circumstances in which personal information about the student may be shared between the registered provider and the Australian government; law and VET regulatory authorities and, if relevant, the tuition protection service. This information includes personal and contact details, course enrolment details and changes, and the circumstance of any suspected breach of a student visa condition requirements; please refer to monitoring course progress policy and procedure and monitoring attendance policy and procedure; and
 - e) Advise the student of his or her obligation to notify ANC of a change of address while enrolled in the course.
- ANC includes in the written agreement the following information, which is consistent with the requirements of the ESOS Act, in relation to refunds of tuition fees in the case of student and provider Default:
 - a) Amounts that may or may not be repaid to the student (including any tuition fees collected by education agents on behalf of ANC);
 - b) Processes for claiming a refund;
 - c) A plain English explanation of what happens in the event of a course not being delivered; and
 - d) A statement that “This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia’s consumer protection laws”. (Please refer to Refund Policy and Procedures)

- ANC recognises qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by another RTO. Where a student enrolls in a qualification delivered and assessed by ANC. Please refer to Credit Transfer policy and Procedure.
- ANC recognises students' prior learning. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process through which applicants gain course credits based on experience gained through similar study (but not direct equivalent), work experience (in any form) or through Formal; Informal or No Formal Learning. Please refer to RPL Policy and Procedure.
- ANC ensures that all procedures and policies for international students enrolling into a course offered by us are followed correctly.
- ANC has a student management system (SMS) TEAMS in place that provides data that meets the AVETMISS Standard.
